

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 113 TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, JULY 8TH, 1953

Weather Tuesday: High 96, low 69. It went to 102 at Columbia, S. C., Tuesday. Rain Tuesday about a third of an inch, .33. Rel. Hum. 68. . . . The Korean situation about the same. . . . Vice President and Mrs. Richard Nixon to go on good will tour of Asia next fall James B. Bowler, 77-year-old Chicago Democrat alderman was elected to Congress Tuesday to succeed Rep. Sabbath who died recently. The vote was 31,509 to his opponent's 6,228. His opponent was Philip J. Boffa, 39-year-old druggist who ran just to give opposition Governor Wm. B. Umstead states that the new auto tag for next year will be a colorful black on yellow affair with the words "Drive Safely" replacing the words "North Carolina" at the bottom. The governor hopes this reminder will reduce the state's death toll on the highways. North Carolina auto tags are made at the state's prison and over one million will be distributed next year. Motor Vehicles Chairman Ed Scheidt, said as far as he knew North Carolina would be the first state to include a direct safety message on license plates. . . . The women in a town in Mississippi are organizing to help clean up their community. Parents should warn their children not to

Continued on Back Page

Piedmont Executive Board Meets Here July 19th

The Piedmont Council Boy Scouts of America Executive Board, representing 11 counties will meet at the Council Camp on Lake Lanier on July 18th, beginning with devotional service at 11 a. m.

Scout Executive R. M. Schiele states that the camp is having a wonderful season so far. The Indian pageant on Thursday evenings have been very popular.

On Sunday the 19th, the new Walker Lyerly Memorial Cabin will be dedicated and an inspection of the camp made following dinner.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Patients admitted to St. Luke's Hospital include Mrs. Helen White of Columbus and Miss Joan Thompson of Lynn. Mrs. Charlotte Lawter of Saluda was discharged.

WILSON—KESTERSON

The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Kesterson of Tryon was solemnized on July 4th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Waldrop of Landrum, cousins of the bride.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Furman Jackson, pastor of the bride.

The living room was decorated with gladiolus and other summer flowers.

The bride chose for her wedding dress a white suit, using white accessories with a corsage of pink carnations.

Those attending the wedding included relatives of the bride and bridegroom.

Mrs. Kesterson is the former Miss Marian Lois Wilson, daughter of

Continued on Back Page