

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 114 TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, JULY 9TH, 1953

CURB REPORTER

Weather Wednesday: High 88, low 68, Rel. Hum. 68. In some places in Polk County last night it was cold . . . Largest copper-head snake ever reported in South Carolina was killed Wednesday in Columbia. He was 44 $\frac{1}{2}$  inches long . . . Peace talks begin again. Tito of Yugoslavia thinks chances for permanent peace in Europe better . . . Master Point duplicate bridge Friday night at Oak Hall. Tryon women golfers will go to Asheville Friday for the Association tournament at the Country Club. Mrs. Charles C. Stratford has been added to the list of players going. . . Charlotte Observer reports that former Mayor Ben E. Douglas is slated to be named head of the Department of Conservation and Development . . . Dr. and Mrs. George F. Taylor are staying at Hendersonville Sunshine Lodge while Dr. Taylor is teaching at Kanuga for 10 days.

THE SUMMER JOB AND A TAX HURDLE

One of the most frustrating experiences of youth is that of a college or high school student trying to get a summer job. Time was when a boy with a bike could nearly always find something to do during the vacation months, but in this motorized and mechanized age bikes and jobs seldom go together.

More and more business firms are arranging their vacation schedule so that they do not need extra help to fill in, with the result that this source of employment is also disappearing. A young man or woman, therefore, must hunt for seasonal employment in resorts and national parks, or, failing that,

Continued on Back Page

Rotary Club Reorganizes

The newly installed president of the Tryon Rotary Club, George C. Vance, will have his organizational meeting Friday at 1 p. m. at Oak Hall Hotel at which time he will announce committee appointments for the new Rotary year.

President Vance is a native of Southern Ohio, went to high school at Hillsboro, Ohio; worked with the founders of LaSalle Extension University; saw service in World War I; became associated with International Accountants Society Inc., a Chicago correspondence school of accounting affiliated with Alexander Hamilton Institute of New York. This merger was dissolved in 1938 and Mr. Vance became vice-president of IAS until his retirement to Tryon. He is still a director of IAS.

Since moving to Tryon he has been a leader in the Episcopal Church as treasurer and vestryman; in the Rotary club as vice-president, committee chairman and editor of the club bulletin. St Luke's Hospital, Horse Show, Little Theatre and numerous other civic organizations have benefited from his art work which he follows as a hobby.

Other new officers are Craig Furr, vice president; James B. Pruitt, secretary-treasurer.

HOSPITAL NEWS

New patients at St. Luke's Hospital include Wm. J. Whitesides, Ridge Spring, S. C., and Tom Blackwell of Mill Spring.

Patients discharged include Irvin Brown of Mill Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miller of Greensboro are arriving Thursday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Burwell.