

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 117 TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, JULY 14TH, 1953

Weather Monday: High 84, low 53, Rel Hum. 44 . . Chinese Red start another offensive against South Koreans and Allies. The U. S. Navy reports that seven bodies have been found in the Pacific from the 58 lost when an airliner plunged into the sea. Russia refuses to let America send food to East Berlin . . . . .

HOSPITAL NEWS

Howard Smith of Landrum was admitted as a patient to St. Luke's Hospital. Mrs. Bertha Kimbrell of Landrum was discharged.

On Howdy-Doody Show

David Donald, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McDonald of Tryon will appear on the Howdy Doody Show Wednesday at 4:30 p. m. The TV program will originate from New York.

The Fellowship Group of the Congregational Church which usually holds its meetings the third Friday each month will not have a meeting during the month of July due to a conflict of other community activities. The next meeting of the Group will be the third Friday in August, 21st.

Recent arrivals at Oak Hall hotel include W. L. Betz of New York City and Mrs. G. W. Emory of South Pasadena, Calif.

MISS BLANCHE V. RANGE

Miss Blanche V. Range, 52, a native of Johnson City, Tenn., was drowned Monday morning in Lake Lanier.

Funeral services will be held on Wednesday at 1 p. m., at the Johnson City Baptist Church with interment in the Johnson City Cemetery. McFarland Funeral Home of Tryon is in charge of arrangements.

The deceased is survived by her mother, Mrs. Ella Mulkey Range of Tryon. Her father was the late P. G. Range of Johnson City.

Miss Range had a law degree and was employed in the Veterans Administration office in Washington for the past 15 years until failing health forced her early retirement. She and her mother came to Tryon in June and rented the Avant garage apartment until they moved to the Moor apartment on Godshaw Hill.

Miss Range was said by friends to be a talented and brilliant woman but had worked so hard she had a nervous breakdown.

She left her apartment Monday morning about 8 and employed Joe Alewine, local taxi driver to take her to Lake Lanier. She said she wanted to get a boat and go out on the lake. She handed Mr. Alewine a $20 bill to pay for the taxi fare. He said he had only $1 bills to give her in change: Miss Range replied that it didn't matter.

Sometime around noon Miss Range's mother reported to the Tryon police that her daughter who was ill had been gone all morning and failed to return. Chief Lewis Lindsey, Policeman J. M. Melton and ABC Officer Claude Scoggin organized searching parties. When it was discovered that

--- Continued on Back Page ---