BIRTHDAY FOR SMITHS

Smith's Super Market of Columbus is celebrating its Fourth Anniversary this week-end with a big sale and Paul and Cecil Smith have a double page ad in today's Bulletin inviting the public to participate.

Paul and Cecil Smith, sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Smith of Tryon Route No. 1, are ex-service men. Upon their return they opened a grocery business in the Pattie building. A few months ago they completed a modern super market and had a grand opening. They received the congratulations of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce and other business houses on their progress.

Mrs. Esther Miller will have as guests this week-end Mrs. W. B. Key Jr., and daughter, Miss Betsy Key of Rock Hill, S. C.
