

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 121 TRYON, N. C. MONDAY, JULY 20TH, 1953

Scout Officials Meet Here

About 80 members of the Piedmont Boy Scout Council Executive Board and their guests from the 11 counties comprising the Piedmont area, met Sunday at the Council Camp on Lake Lanier.

Devotions were conducted at 11 a. m., by the members of the camp staff. Following the service the business meeting of the board was held to receive reports from the various counties and operating committees of the council.

The board expressed their best wishes to R. H. Brady, chairman of the committee on camping, for his speedy recovery to good health. A resolution of thanks was given to Dr. Julius Welborn Jr., of Tryon for his services as a member of the council committee on health and safety and for his visitations to the camp.

A brief report was made on the contingent from the Piedmont Council attending the National Jamboree. Nelson Jackson of Tryon and Orrin Robbins of Lenoir were in attendance at the annual meeting of the National Council BSA at Los Angeles, prior to the opening of the jamboree and attended the opening exercises of the national jamboree on July 16, at which time 50,000 Scouts and leaders from all over the nation and visiting Scouts from Canada and Central America were in attendance.

Kay Dixon of Gastonia, first president of the council which was organized in 1923, was present and congratulated the council on its great growth.

Following the business meeting of the board, a 1953 super Buick sedan was presented to Scout

Continued on Back Page----

JACK CAMP SR.

Funeral services for Jack Camp Sr., 59, of near Rutherfordton, were held Sunday at 2:30 p. m., at the Rutherfordton Presbyterian Church with burial in the church cemetery. Carroll P. Rogers and F. P. Bacon of Tryon were honorary pallbearers.

Mr. Camp died Friday night after an extended illness. He was a native of Polk County and lived for many years in Green Creek community. He was a son of the late Joe Camp, former member of the state legislature. His maternal grandfather was the Rev. Milnor Jones who founded the first Episcopal church in Tryon. At one time Mr. Camp was field representative in this area for the Farmers Federation.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Eugenia Twitty Camp, and two sons, Jack Camp Jr., and Joe Camp of Middlesboro, Ky., both by his first marriage; also a brother, Lewis Camp of Charlotte and four sisters, all living outside North Carolina.

BRIDGE WINNERS

Winners of the Duplicate Bridge Tournament Friday at Oak Hall were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kerby, first; Mrs. E. W. Tracy and Mrs. Carl Johnson, second; Mrs. Geo. Newhall and Isham Henderson, third; Mr. and Mrs. Stanislas Czetwertvnski, fourth.

Next Friday, July 24th, a special winners event will be played with two master points and prizes to be awarded the winners.

Mrs. E. H. Sumpter has returned to Atlanta, Ga., after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. R. L. Branner and family.