

[Est. 1-31-28]

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

[5c Per Copy]

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 123 TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, JULY 22, 1953

Weather Tuesday: high 92, low 67, Rel. Hum. 66 . . . Peace in Korea is getting closer as negotiators get together. Former President Herbert Hoover is willing to make another study to help re-organize the executive branch of the federal government . . . Bobby G. Jolley of Chesnee drowned in Henderson's Lake about 11:30 a. m. Tuesday while swimming with a sister and a cousin . . . The Dean's List for the past quarter has been announced by the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Among those listed is the name of John M. Guilbert of Tryon; also John C. Vernon of Summerfield, formerly of Tryon . . . Tryon policemen have received a slight raise in salary. A number of people from the larger cities who are now making their home in Tryon have been impressed with the friendly, courteous spirit of the Tryon police force. They were particularly impressed with the efficient way in which they organized the search for Miss Blanche Range who was drowned in Lake Lanier recently. The officers were notified at noon to look for her. Without any clue to go on they soon found clues and within four hours their searching parties had recovered the body and offered every assistance possible within their means to the grief

—Continued on Back Page—

Four Polk County Men Leave For Armed Forces

The following men left Wednesday morning for induction in the armed forces:

Boyce Leroy Jackson, James Atlas Pace, Eddie Kay Wilson, Joe Dedman, and William Earl Dietz (transfer from West Virginia).

The Home Friendly Club officiated at the farewell service. Dr. George F. Taylor, acting as chaplain of the Home Friendly Club, gave them the gifts of crosses and prayer books. Mrs. C. W. Nagel and Mrs. J. O. Safford representing the Red Cross served coffee and cookies and distributed cigarettes furnished by the Lions Club.

IN SHOOTING AFFAIR

Col. Walter E. Buchly, U. S. Army retired, has just returned from Knoxville, Tenn., where he refereed a Southeastern regional small bore rifle championship shoot. The shoot was open to outstanding riflemen, both Army and civilian, in the region. There were contestants in the shoot from Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, North and South Carolina, Florida and West Virginia.

The winner was 22-year-old Johnny Sheadas of Savannah, whose score was 3194 out of a possible 3200.

Colonel Buchly has a home on old Highway No. 19, and has been active in civic affairs in Columbus since coming here two years ago. He is now in charge of the Columbus Realty Co. office during Geo. Martin's convalescence.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Melvin of Raleigh are visiting relatives in Tryon while on a business trip in Western North Carolina.