Vol. 26—No. 124 TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, JULY 23, 1953

Weather Wednesday: high 82, low 71, rain 1.25, Rel. Hum. 90. . . An important thing in this area tonight is the Safety meeting at 7:30 at the Tryon School auditorium sponsored by the Blue Ridge Safety Council. In order to help you save the lives of your children or prevent serious injury the council is offering free entertainment and free refreshments to all persons interested in promoting safety in the home, in industry and on the highway. A safety expert from Charlotte will address the meeting. The Hi Neighbor quartet will entertain the group after which all will go to the cafeteria for refreshments. Three good reasons for going and it may save the life of a loved one . . . Prime Minister Winston Churchill has asked for a change of British government rules in order to allow Princess Margaret to marry a divorced man, Capt. Townsend, a commoner . . . Tonight is the night of the Hiawatha pageant at the Boy Scout Camp on Lake Lanier. It is better than ever and is drawing larger crowds. Weather permitting it will be presented around 8 o'clock in the amphitheatre. Public invited.

Of North Carolina's estimated 4,000,000 people, approximately 1,347,000 live on farms.

Rotary Meets Friday

Paul E. Cluberson, Polk County Farm Agent, will be in charge of the Tryon Rotary Club program Friday at 1 p. m., but has not announced his subject or plans.

MRS. JOEL SHERFEY

Mrs. Margaret Sherfey, 93, passed away Wednesday night after an extended illness at the home of a daughter, Mrs. M. D. Edwards Sr. She was a native of Blountville, Tenn., and had made her home in this area a number of years. She was the widow of the late Rev. Joel Sherfey and a member of the Church of the Brethren.

Surviving are three daughters: Mrs. C. O. Gilbert, Dade City, Fla., Mrs. Curtis Garrett, Saluda and Mrs. M. D. Edwards Sr., Tryon; eleven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the McFarland Funeral Home with the Rev. E. D. Dietz and the Rev. Jack Guffey officiating. Burial will be at Friendship Baptist Church, Saluda. Grandsons will be pallbearers.

New arrivals at the Saluda Inn are Mrs. Mary Butts, Holywood, Fla., Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Tuck, Pembroke, Va., Mrs. Minnie L. Waring, Columbia, S. C., John J. McKee, Lorain, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. John Pruitt and three sons, John, George, and Allen, of Decatur, Ga., Dr. J. R. Spencer and A. M. Spencer Jr. of South Mills, N. C., Mrs. Gladys Drouth, of Jacksonville, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gilmore of Atlanta, Ga.

Drive safely, the life you save may be your own.
