

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 127 TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, JULY 28TH, 1953

Weather Monday: High 91, low 60, Rel. Hum. 52 . . . Next trouble expected in Indochina where Reds are trying to get a stronger foothold . . . American businessmen seem confident of the future, that signing of the armistice will not slow up production . . . Spartanburg county shipped 700 carloads of peaches last week . . . Congratulations to Miss Faith Burwell, daughter of Ernest Burwell of Tryon. Sunday's Spartanburg Herald had an interesting write up about her rapid rise since graduating from Northwestern University School of Dramatics. She has already been accepted as a professional in the cast of "New Faces" at the Great Northern Theatre. She will enter the Yale School of Drama this fall for graduate study . . . The Spartanburg Herald reports that Jessie Dav of Tryon is a patient at General Hospital . . . If you train your children at home to put trash in receptacles it will help keep streets cleaner. However, many adults throw cigar wrappers and cigarette cartons on the streets. Folks just not thinking. If you don't throw stuff in front of somebody else's place it will influence them not to throw stuff in front of your place. If you love your community you will help keep it clean.
