3. WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 5, 1953

Weather Tuesday: High 90, low 70, rain .09, Rel. Hum. 75 . . . Exchanges of prisoners of war in Korea is under way. Pfc. William Sherrill of Bryson City, is the first soldier from Western North Carolina to get his freedom from the Chinese Reds. He was reported missing in action in Nov. 1950. It was 11 months before his parents heard from him and he told them then that he was a prisoner somewhere in China . . . A 19-months-old child fell into a 50 ft. well in Greenville county Tuesday. The mother, Mrs. Thelma Eshelman, had removed the cover of the well to draw some water and while her back was turned her child fell in, according to some other children who ran to her to tell what happened. The mother jumped in the well to save her child who was lying in several feet of water according to reports. She pulled him out of the water. In the meantime Greenville firemen, police officers and others gathered around the well and helped bring the mother and child out of the well. Neither was seriously hurt. The child was scratched and bruised but was happy to see his daddy at the top of the well . . . Senator Knowland of California was elected Senate

AT KIWANIS TUESDAY

The Rev. Charles L. McGavern, rector of the Church of the Holy Cross Church, was the guest speaker at the Tryon Kiwanis Club Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall hotel. Manuel C. Holthouser was in charge of the program.

Mr. McGavern spoke of the importance of taking a second look at things we read and not jump to conclusions over reading a part of an article. The whole thing must be read and analyzed. He said we should free ourselves from many prejudices and be more tolerant of others' views. We should not brand any entire group just because of the actions of one or two. He thought a minister should be treated the same as any other person; be paid a living salary and allowed to assume his share of responsibilities the same as any other person and not be given 10 per cent discounts.

Guests at the meeting included W. C. Bates Jr., of New York City; Rupert Koch of Hendersonville; Dan Keels and Bob Ingalls of the Miami, Fla., Kiwanis Club. Mr. Ingalls, past president of the Miami club has a 21 year perfect attendance record.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dennis and son, Joe, of Clover, S. C., formerly of Tryon, who are spending their vacation at the Flynn cottage at Chimney Rock, visited friends in Tryon Tuesday. Mr. Joe Dennis who has been an invalid most of his life, keeps up with his Tryon friends through The Bulletin. He has a television set at home in Clover which brings many of the outside world personalities and programs right into his room.
