

[Est. 1-31-28]

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

[5c Per Copy]

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 137 TRYON

TUESDAY, AUGUST 11, 1953

CURB REPORTS

Weather Monday: High 88, low 66, Rel. Hum. 52. . . A lot of publicity is being given a 42 year old woman who walked 2,000 miles to lose 110 pounds of fat. Hiking in the mountains around here should become popular again . . . Mayor C. D. Stevens states that the Town Commissioners have named Lewis Clary, 45, of Gaffney, S. C., to serve on the Tryon police force. Mr. Clary has had 13 years of public service, eight of them on the Gaffney police force. A check on his record was very commendable. He was also a member of the Gaffney Fire Dept. . . . The Town Commissioners also accepted the low bid for construction of a water main from Five Points in Gillette Woods to Highway 176 near the Hospital Road. Mid-State Construction Co., got the job. Town Manager C. O. Smith says the town's water supply is now doubled since the new source has been tapped and sent into the new reservoir. The tax rate has been reduced to $1.75 per hundred, the lowest in many years . . . Former Polk County Agent John W. Artz of Gatesville brought his wife and son through Polk County Monday while enroute to Old Fort to visit relatives. Former Assistant Agent Sam Dobson was here last week-end. Friendship ties made in Polk County are very strong and always bring back friends whenever opportunity presents itself.

President Joe Stockton, Vice President John W. Cowan and Secretary Floyd Evans of the Lions Club attended the district cabinet officers meeting at Pisgah Sunday.

Salesmanship At Lions Club

Dr. Herbert Warren Orr, Inman druggist, will be the guest speaker at the Tryon Lions Club tonight (Tuesday, at 7:30 at Oak Hall hotel. Jimmy Griffin will be in charge of the program. The druggist will speak on the importance of salesmanship.

Pat Griffith Wins 7th Title

Mrs. Walter T. Lyons, nee Pat Griffith of Rye, N. Y., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Griffith of Tryon R-1, won the Rye, N. Y., Women's Tennis Championship Saturday for the 7th time. There were 64 women competing for the championship and Mrs. Lyons defeated six of them in reaching the final bracket.

HINES RELIEVED OF PRISON CAMP POSITION

Walter D. Hines, steward of Polk County Prison Camp No. 909, has been released indefinitely by the State Department of Prisons.

This shakeup in the Polk County prison system was made on Thursday, according to official sources. Walter F. Anderson of Raleigh is director of the State Prison System. B. H. Freeman of Brevard, N. C., is the supervisor of this district. The release from the State Department of Highway and Public Works System was made through Mr. Freeman, who serves this district.

Amos D. Foster is superintendent of the State Prison Camp at Columbus.

Mr. Hines, who served Polk County for four terms as sheriff, and also served the state prior to becoming sheriff of Polk. He

Continued on Back Page