TELEPHONE No. 203

Edward Mottzman, proprietor of the Edward's Shoppe, in Tryon, and past commander of the VFW post at Hendersonville, has returned from Milwaukee where he was sent by his post to attend the national encampment. He reports a thrilling national meeting attended by 25,000 delegates and 100,000 spectators. The encampment presented to Cardinal Spellman the Bernard Baruch award for outstanding service to humanity. Award was presented by Baruch in person. Vice President Richard Nixon made the chief address. The million dollar drum parade was a colorful event and lasted for five hours and was viewed by 100,000 people. Enroute home Commander Mottzman visited the VFW home for widows and orphans at Eaton Rapids, Mich.
