

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 142 TUESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1953

U. S. agrees to Russia's demand for participation in discussion of Austrian treaty. . . . Pfc. Clayton Taylor of Campobello, S. C., R-1, freed from Prisoner of War Camp after 28 months. . . . Polio restrictions in Catawba, Alexander and Lincoln Counties will be lifted Monday if no new outbreaks occur. . . . John S. Carpenter of Landrum received his master of arts degree in administration and supervision of vocational schools Friday at Colorado A&M College, Fort Collins, Colorado. . . . The Spartanburg Herald reports Fannie Collins of Landrum R-1, as a patient in General Hospital. . . . Pappy Gault of Spartanburg lost his North American bantam weight championship to Peacock Monday night in a split decision. . . . A picnic in honor of Miss Jeannette MacGregor will be held on Thursday night at Pearson's Falls. The picnic is sponsored by the Polk County Council of Social Agencies. Reservations should be made by calling Tel. 36.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Only new patient at St. Luke's Hospital today is the four and a half months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bates of Mill Spring.

Patients discharged include Miss Julia Hicks, Mrs. Ed Morgan, LeRoy Rowe.

Knife Cutting At Pea Ridge

Herman Conner was cut with a pocket knife Saturday night at Pea Ridge. Woodrow Morris, charged with the act, was released from Polk County jail on $500 bond before Magistrate J. B. McKaig for his appearance in Superior Court next week.

Constable D. B. Wilson of White Oak township took Conner to the Rutherfordton Hospital for treatment. Conner was cut severely in the stomach and back. It took 23 stitches to sew him up.

No reason for the affray was given.

Football Practice Today

Coach David Prince will start football practice today at 3 p. m., at Tryon school gymnasium. All boys interested in playing football this season will meet at the gym today for instructions and initial practice. Two sessions daily will be held until school starts.

JERRY ATKINS

Jerry Junior Atkins, 18-month-old son of Ralph and Dorothy Price Atkins of Landrum, died Monday at 11 a. m., at General Hospital. He had been ill 10 days.

Surviving besides the parents are: two sisters, Judy Ann and Peggy Jean; and the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Atkins of Campobello R-2.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday at 11 a. m. at Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church by the Rev. Toy Howell. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Pett Funeral home in charge.
—Spartanburg Herald.