

[Est. 1-31-28]

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

[5c Per Copy]

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 145

TRYON, N. C.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 21, 1953

Weather Thursday: High 82, low 63, Rel. Hum. 65. . . Mossadegh, deposed prime minister of Iran surrenders to new prime minister representing the shah (king) . . . The ruler of Morocco exiled by French to keep down a "holy war" . . . Former Governor Cameron Morrison of North Carolina, 83, died of a heart attack in Quebec, -Canada, Thursday, while on a motor tour with his grandson, James J. Harris Jr. Morrison was known as the "Good Roads" Governor, and served both in the U. S. Senate and House of Representatives. He headed the North Carolina delegation to the National Democratic convention in Chicago and helped nominate Adlai Stevenson. Funeral arrangements have not been announced. . . . No duplicate bridge tournament in Tryon this week on account of the tournament in Asheville . . . The Town of Tryon has put out attractive new trash receptacles on the business streets. Now if thoughtless persons can be educated to see the importance of using these cans it will help make the community cleaner. The other fellow's consideration for you will make your path cleaner and your consideration for him will make every body happier and your community worth more. Let's be proud of as many things as

Continued on Back Page---

MRS. MAUD BOND LEE

Mrs. Maud Bond Lee, 85, passed at St. Luke's Hospital Thursday morning at 9:30 after an illness of some months. She had been at the hospital since last April.

Mrs. Lee was a native of England and a member of the Episcopal Church. She was twice married. The first time to a Mr. Bond and the second time to John E. Lee, prominent business man of New York City. She is survived by a step son, Edgerton Lee, of Paris, France, manager of the Paris office of the International News Service, who with his wife, the Paris editor of Vogue, spent some time here this spring.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lee will be held Saturday afternoon at 3 at the McFarland Funeral Home with the Rev. Charles L. McGavern, officiating. Interment in Tryon Cemetery.

Miss MacGregor Honored

The Polk County Council of Social Agencies gave a picnic Thursday evening at Pearson's Falls in honor of Miss Jeannette MacGregor, who retired recently as superintendent of the Polk County Welfare Department.

Following the dinner a certificate of appreciation in recognition of her 12 years of service to the welfare of the whole county was presented by Miss Elena Garcia in behalf of the council.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Patients admitted to St. Luke's Hospital include Mrs. Effie Parsons; Mrs. Theodore McDowell, and Mrs. Grover Whitmire, all of Tryon. Patients discharged include Mrs. Ernest H. Haynes Jr., and Mrs. Mack Blanton, both of Tryon.