

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor
Vol. 26—No. 147 TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, AUGUST 25, 1953

Weather Monday: High 90, low 57, Rel. Hum. 47 . . . News of the Court House in Columbus with a number of interesting cases to be decided was the major interest in Polk County Monday morning as Polk County Superior Court got under way. Judge Q. K. Nimocks of Fayetteville is presiding. Howard B. Frankenfield Jr., of Tryon was named foreman of the Grand Jury. Frankenfield is a college graduate, civil engineer and former president of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce. Other members of the Grand Jury will be listed later. The Court House was packed with about 75 people standing. Hearing on the petition to oust Sheriff Loyd B. Panther will begin Wednesday morning at 10. Monroe Redden, attorney for Panther asked that charges of public drunkenness and disturbing the peace be removed from the records against Panther. The judge refused to rule on the motion yesterday and will hear the case Wednesday . . . South Korea refuses to sit on the same side with India in United Nations discussion of peace conference . . . Mrs. Pearle Mesta, former U. S. minister to Luxembourg, has returned from a 12,000 mile tour of Russia and she was shocked at living conditions there. She said the

Continued on Back Page

SALUDA RESIDENT IS ORDERED HELD

Hendersonville, Aug. 24.—Oscar N. Hipp, 35-year-old Saluda resident was ordered held for the grand jury on a manslaughter charge today following an inquest into the death of Guy Elwood Sitton, 19, who was killed in the collision of a truck and car at First Avenue, and Washington St., on August 17th.

Hipp was the driver of a car which collided with a truck driven by Edward Hyder, in which young Sitton was a passenger.—The Asheville Citizen.

REVIVAL THIS WEEK

Dr. James A. Howard of Columbia, S. C., is holding a revival at the Fairview Baptist Church near Landrum this week. Services are held each evening at 7:30.

SAMUEL E. HUNTER

Samuel E. Hunter died in his sleep at his home in Jacksonville, Fla., Sunday night. He had been in ill health for the past 3 years. He is survived by his wife, Betty Irby Hunter; two sons, Dr. William Hunter, Clemson, S. C., and Mac Hunter, Durham, and seven grandchildren. He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Myrtle Hunter Bradey of Landrum.

Mr. Hunter was the son of the late Samuel F. Hunter and Olive Davis Hunter of Gowensville, S. C.

Funeral services at the Gowensville Baptist Church Tuesday at 5 p. m., by the Revs. A. M. Jones and Mr. Lawson.

Pallbearers, cousins: Charlie Reid, Raymon Staton, Fred Robertson, Frank and Ben Davis and Albert Waldrop.