

CURB REPORTER

Continued from Page One

West must stick together for the free world is the only place where you can say what you want to say. "Communism is foreign to all I have been brought up to love and appreciate in a democratic, free community."

HOSPITAL NEWS: Mrs. Lewis Kimbrell, Landrum and Mrs. G. O. Gilbert, Columbus, admitted to St. Luke's. Patients discharged: Stephen Shaffer, Tryon; James Walter Culbreth, Mrs. Steve Pittman, both of Landrum. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Deaton are parents of a son born Aug. 25, at 5:52 a.m.

Mrs. Aileen Anderson has returned to New York City after a visit with Mrs. Charles Goggi.

Recent arrivals at Oak Hall hotel include Roy Clayton, Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Johnston, Delray Beach, Fla.; Judge Q. K. Nimocks Jr., Fayetteville, N. C.

LIONS LADIES NIGHT

The Tryon Lyons Club will have ladies night program tonight at Oak Hall. A feature of the meeting will be a talk and movie by John E. Jones, promotion director of The Asheville Citizen-Times, and former state editor and professor of journalism at Breneau College. Eugene Jones will be in charge of the program.

COMMUNICATIONS

Mr. Leonard Porter:

What would you like for us to play on our bell system at the First Baptist Church, "Old Man River"?

As Jesus prayed . . . so let us, "Forgive them Lord."

W. J. Hipps.

FOR SALE: Coca-Cola vender machine. Holds 24 bottles in top and has pre-cooler for 48 bottles. Very reasonable. See Byron Rector at Rector's Laundry.—Advertisement 25, 26, 28c.

DAILY BULLETINS—5c each

BUDGET MAKING

In making out your budget for the fiscal year, you set aside a certain amount for

ADVERTISING

It is a necessary investment.

In checking on all mediums, you'll find

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

the best investment and it gets the best results. Try it!

TELEPHONE 99