

NEW HOME AGENT

Mrs. Essa D. Shaw

The new home demonstration agent for Polk County is Mrs. Essa D. Shaw, former home agent in Franklin County, who will take up her duties here on Sept. 1.

Mrs. Shaw is a native of Andrews, S. C., and was educated at the University of Florida and Florida Southern College. She served with the Florida Extension Service several years before coming to North Carolina. She was acting home agent in Wilkes County for some time before going to Franklin County in 1947. She will make her home at the Avant apartment on Melrose Avenue in Tryon. She has two grown children: a son, Robert C. Shaw, of Winston-Salem, and daughter, Mrs. A. R. Dayson, Gary, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bittner and children, Richard and Marcia of Ridgefield, Conn., will arrive in Tryon Saturday for a visit with Mrs. Bittner's mother, Mrs. C. A. Lincoln.

Ranson Nanney has returned to St. Petersburg, Fla., after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Elliott and other relatives in Polk County.

Russell Henson, 14, Dies

James Russell Henson, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Henson of Tryon, died at 6:20 at St. Luke's Hospital Thursday morning from injuries received when he jumped from a moving truck at his home at the State line. He fell under the truck driven by his brother.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 4 p. m., at Fairview Baptist Church near Landrum. Burial will be in the church cemetery. The Rev. W. B. Belue, pastor and the Rev. Henry O. Hearn of Tryon, will officiate. The body will be at McFarland's Funeral Home until 3 p. m., Friday.

Besides his parents, young Henson is survived by three brothers, John Earle, Virgil Mac and Furman Andy Henson; also one sister, Mary Jane Henson.
