

Landrum Man Charged With Assault On Wife

A 34-year-old Landrum man Thursday was charged with assault and battery with intent to kill in a warrant issued by Magistrate Bobo Burnett.

W. Ikie Tinsley is accused of assaulting his wife, Sylva Tinsley, at their home Wednesday night, police said. Mrs. Tinsley told Magistrate Burnett her husband snapped a gun at her twice but the pistol failed to go off. The warrant was signed by Mrs. Tinsley.

Tinsley was arrested early Thursday morning on Mills Ave. Police said Tinsley had a .38 caliber pistol in his possession when picked up. He was transferred to County Jail and later released under $1,000 bond.—The Spartanburg Herald.

4-H Junior Dairy Calf Show At Harmon Field Tuesday

Polk County 4-H'ers are planning for a big day at Harmon Field near Tryon, Sept. 1.

There will be 50 4-H'ers representing every section of the county on hand to exhibit their dairy cow, calf, gilt, or pullets. The show will get underway at 9:30 a. m., and will be climaxed by an auction of 120 selected sex-linked pullets at 2 p. m.

Jack Kelly of the North Carolina State College animal Industry Department will be on hand to judge the Hampshire gilts, and J. D. George of the Dairy Department will judge the dairy cows and calves. J. Raymond West, Assistant County Agent of Buncombe County will be on hand to judge the pullets. Prizes will be awarded to the 4-H boys and girls on the basis of blue, red, or white ribbons (Danish System).

Lunch will be served to people obtaining a ticket from the Polk County Home Demonstration office.

Admission is free and the public is invited.

The Landrum Cannery will be opened only by appointment, according to F. M. Hart, manager.
