TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, SEPT. 3, 1953

Elizabeth 9053 James, Miss

Weather Wednesday: High 92, low 72, Rel. Hum. 50. . . General Jonathan Wainwright, 70, died Wednesday in Brooke Army Hospital, San Antonio, Texas, from brain stroke. He was the hero of Corregidor. Maj. General E. P. King Jr., of Saluda, next in command to General Wainwright, was interviewed by the Spartanburg Herald as soon as news of the death was announced. General King expressed his personal loss of a friend with whom he served in the Japanese war in the Philippines, and also were prisoners of war for over three years. General King described Wainwright as a very able commander, a courageous and generous gentleman . . . The trial of C. O. Story, charged with assault on James E. Johnson, has been transferred to Henderson County October term of court as a result of Story's failure to appear at his trial in Polk County Wednesday. That was the last case on the Polk County criminal docket and Polk Superior Court was adjourned by Judge W. H. S. Burgwyn until next February . . . Tryon stores will be closed next Monday, Sept. 7, for Labor Day . . . Tryon Country Club members desiring picnic supper supplied by Pine Crest Inn after the Fruits of Labor golf tournament Monday, should make reservations with Mrs. . . .

REGISTER SATURDAY

All new voters, those who have moved into their respective precincts at least four months and in the state for one year, or who have become 21 years of age since last election, must register if they wish to vote in the coming bond election. Registration books will be open in all precincts from 9 a. m. to sunset at their regular polling places. In Tryon it will be the school gymnasium. Mrs. Sara MacDonald is the registrar.

Ned Anderson of Saluda is chairman of the County Election Board. A list of other registrars and registering places will be published when available.

HOSPITAL NEWS

A daughter was born Sept. 2 at 7:15 p. m. at St. Luke's Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jackson of Tryon R-1.

Mrs. J. D. Waldrop of Tryon is a patient in the hospital and Mrs. Nanny Taylor of Columbus has been discharged.

Polk Calves Win Many Ribbons At Enka

All the winners of the Polk County 4-H Club Junior Dairy Calf Show didn't go to the district show near Asheville Wednesday, but of the 15 calves that did go, 10 of them won blue ribbons and five red ribbons. Three of the calves that won red ribbons here won blue ribbons at Asheville, showing how keen and close the judging is here.

Shelva Ann McSwain advanced her calf Rhodora Cindy from red to blue; so did Wayne Stott with Standard Hollyhock and John Ray Jackson with Soumerco Babe. Oth-
