

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest D.

Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 155 TR

N, N. C. FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1953

James, Miss Elizabeth

Weather Thursday: High 93, low 67, rain .05, Rel. Hum. 75 . . . General Dean freed from Red Korean prisoner of war camp. The end of exchange of prisoners expected this week-end . . . Heat wave easing up some. Showers came to this section Thursday afternoon and more promised for the next few days . . . Just one more day for shopping in Tryon before Tuesday. Stores will be closed Sunday and Monday on account of Labor Day. County Court House offices will also be closed, but the commissioners will meet and the tax sale will be held . . . The sun was so hot in Rutherfordton last Saturday that it expanded the plate glass window of the Carolina 5&10c store and broke it. . . . Now that the Korean war is held up by an armistice, rumors of war are beginning in other places and individual murders are getting the spotlight . . . William R. Shell of Spartanburg has confessed to the fatal stabbing of his estranged wife . . . The queen of the Apple Festival is Miss Lib Carnegie of Rutherfordton. Tryon's candidate, Miss Sally Goodyear, was a worthy representative of the community. Her picture is listed again in today's Asheville Citizen along with eight other attractive girls. Several thousand people attended the con-

-----Continued on Back Page-----

COMMUNICATIONS

-----Continued from Thursday-----

Open letter to the people of Polk and Henderson Counties:

Q: How much money will the people get for the land that they are selling?

A: Nearly 90% of the land to be purchased has already been optioned. The people who have given options on their land will get the full amount agreed upon in the option. In those few cases where option agreement is not reached, the value of the land will be judged by a committee of local citizens.

Q: How is the proposed refuge to be managed?

A: It will be under the management of the State Wildlife Resources Commission, which agency will assign to it a full time protector who will be assisted by local deputies. This is to be done as soon as the establishment is assured, which it is hoped will be some time in the next few weeks.

Q: Will people be allowed to hunt and fish on the area?

A: Since it will be stocked with deer and wild turkeys, and since these must be given a chance to multiply, the area will be closed to all hunting for a period of at least 5 years from the time of completion of stocking. But the fishing regulations will remain essentially the same as they are now.

Q: When the area is open to hunting who will be allowed to hunt?

A: It will be open on an equal basis to all licensed hunters. The demand for hunting on Pisgah and the other older refuges has been so great as to require setting hunter quotas and applications in advance to insure safety to the

-----Continued on Page Two-----