TRYON, N. C. MONDAY, SEPT. 14TH, 1953

Weather Friday: High 85, low 50, Rel. Hum. 45; Saturday high 90, low 60, Rel. Hum. 44; Sunday high 85, low 63, Rel. Hum. 32 . . . Tryon lost its first football game of the season Friday night to District No. 1 of South Carolina, 26 to 0, before the largest crowd ever seen at Harmon Field football game. The new portable steel bleachers were appreciated by the audience and except for one or two persons standing up in front near the players bench to block the view of the first row, all the fans got a good view of the game and remained in their seats except between halves when they visited and watched the Inman band give a performance. The football field enclosed by a fence with two entrances, makes it easier for cars to enter Harmon Field and get parked quickly. New guard cables, markers and other accessories brought the praise of many Tryon football lovers . . . Democratic leaders meeting today in Chicago. . . . Lewis Stone, "Judge Hardy" of movies died of heart attack Saturday . . . Robert Carlisle, prominent Spartanburg lawyer and civic leader, died Saturday night of a heart attack . . . "Reaching from Heaven" is the name of a wholesome movie at Tryon Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday. It would be nice to take the whole

Life Saving Blood Here

There were 123 pints of blood donated Friday for the Blood Bank in Polk County; 78 pints from Tryon and 45 from Columbus unit. A little short of the goal, but officials were grateful to all the volunteer workers and donors who made it possible for the Bloodmobile to come to Tryon. Without the donation Polk County people could not get free blood when they need it. Nine new members entered the gallon club as follows: Mrs. Katherine Metcalf, W. Fred Swann, Renous Morton, Mrs. Margaret Scott Dye, Clement D. Stevens, Lee Cowan, John L. Edwards, Col. Norme D. Frost, Miss Susan Simpson.

There are now 42 members of the gallon club. Mrs. Henry Hart donated her 25th pint Friday. A number of the 42 will soon enter the two gallon club.
