

(Est. 1-31-28)

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

[5c Per Copy]

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's ⁹⁰⁵³smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—N 162 TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, SEPT. 15TH, 1953

Weather Monday: High 82, low 49, Rel. Hum. 37 . . . There will be a lot of delightful days between now and the middle of November; cool mornings and nights; splendid hiking weather, beautiful fall foliage, a colorful landscape. . . Tryon Kiwanians and Greer Kiwanians will meet tonight at 7:30 at Oak Hall for an Inter-Club meeting for fellowship and entertainment. J. A. Simpson is in charge of the program . . . The Rev. Orville H. White addressed the Christian Laymen's League of the Congregational Church Monday night following the supper at the Church House. He outlined the highlights of his recent trip to the International Christian Conference held in St. Andrews, Scotland, and was impressed with the oneness of Christian thought. Representatives from different countries and different races were all united in Christian fellowship, in freedom of thought, in desire for a better world based on Christian principles. He also told of his visit in London to Mrs. Porter, mother of L. C. Porter of Tryon; and he saw the Queen and the rest of the Royal family

Mrs. Stowell Wasson of River Forest, Ill., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Vosburgh and family.

Polk County H. D. President Radio Speaker Wednesday

Radio program, Spartanburg WSPA on Wednesday at 12:45. Mrs. C. R. Nichols, Polk County Council President and Chairman of the 6th District will tell of her recent trip to Boston, Mass., where she attended the annual meeting of the National Council of Home Demonstration Clubs. Mrs. Nichols attended this meeting together with 1,035 women from five countries of the world. She was one of 27 delegates and one advisor from North Carolina.

The Associated Country Women of the World meet jointly with the National Council of Home Demonstration Clubs annually.

Duke Medical Dean Here

Dr. Wilburt Cornell Davison, dean of medicine and professor of pediatrics at Duke University, is in Tryon as the guest of Dr. W. S. Rankin at Twin Gates on Melrose Avenue.

Dr. Davison is a native of Grand Rapids, Mich., Princeton graduate, Rhodes Scholar at Oxford, M. D., from Johns Hopkins, honors from Wake Forest University of North Carolina and other universities, as well as a leader in national and international medical affairs. He is also the author of numerous medical and scientific articles and papers. And during World War I served with ARC in Serbia and France.

Dr. Davison is considering Tryon as a place for retirement when that time comes.

Miss Mable Searcy of Mill Spring graduated from Greenville School of Nursing, General Hospital Friday, Sept. 14, at the auditorium of Furman University.