

Est. 1831-28

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

[5c Per Copy]

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 164

TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, SEPT. 17TH, 1953

Weather Wednesday: high 94, low 60, Rel. Hum. 37 . . . Saturday is last day for new voters to register for the bond election on Oct. 3rd. Register at the voting place in your precinct, if you have become 21 since last election, have been in the state for one year and have lived in your precinct for four months, you should register if you did not vote in the last election . . . Friday night is duplicate bridge night at Oak Hall hotel at 7:45. Also at 8:15 p. m. at the Congergational Church House the Irene Kohler piano concert will be held, benefit of St. Lukes Hospital . . . Another important meeting TONIGHT: the Tryon P.-T. A. will hear Cary L. Page of the School Board talk on the coming bond election. Whether he is for it or against it, the notice does not say. Anyway he is a taxpayer and is entitled to a hearing. He is considering the welfare of his children and future grandchildren as well as the various small communities such as exist in this county throughout the state . . . Another important event for FRIDAY night is the second football game of the season at Harmon Field under lights. The locals meet Walnut at 8 o'clock . . . Fletcher Jolly, 73, of Forest City, was struck by a car and killed Wednesday night in the Sandy Mush Community.

Rotary Governor Coming

District Governor Tom Lambeth of Rotary International, superintendent of the Statesville Public Schools, will pay an official visit to the Tryon Rotary Club Friday at 1 p. m. at Oak Hall hotel. He will be the guest of President George C. Vance.

Governor Lambeth will outline the aims and ideals of Rotary International and inspect the achievements and spirit of the Tryon club and its relations with the world-wide fellowship of Rotary International which seeks to promote better service to communities, good will among all nations and lasting friendship with one another.

There will be a special meeting of officers, directors and committee chairmen at 11 o'clock before the regular meeting.

Tryon Club Championship Scheduled For Sunday

The finals in the Tryon Country Club Championship Golf Tournament will be played Sunday between Dr. W. T. Linn of Inman and Fred Edwards of Tryon. It will be a 36 hole match starting at 9 a. m. Eighteen holes will be played in the morning and 18 in the afternoon. Linn qualified with an 80 and Edwards qualified with a 75. The contest promises to be close. Linn has a normal handicap of five and Edwards two. But the handicap has no part in the scoring for the championship. Edwards reached the finals by defeating Pill Lord and Linn by defeating Edward Savre.

Other final matches to be played this week include first flight matches between Peter Mahler and Charles Willard; second flight

Continued on Back Page