

(Est. 1-31-28)

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

[5c Per Copy]

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 167

TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, SEPT. 22ND, 1953

Weather Monday: high 87, low 58, Rel. Hum. 65 . . . Business leaders continue to forecast a slight slump. That's the time to trade. Buy everything you can afford. Buy stocks and bonds that you know will pay good dividends. When there is buying and selling, business is good for everybody. Producing and consuming keep people in jobs; and well fed and well clothed . . . Kiwanians hear General King today at 1 at Oak Hall; Women's Golf Assn. meets at 1 at the Country Club today. Chamber of Commerce annual meeting Wednesday night at Oak Hall at 8. Holy Communion Wednesday morning at 10:30 at Episcopal Church.

HOSPITAL NEWS

One new patient, Tollie Harrison of Tryon, has been admitted to St. Luke's Hospital. Patients discharged include Mrs. George Vosburgh Jr., and Mrs. Paul Kuykendall.

Lt. Col. W. C. "Bill" Ward Jr. is now an instructor in atomic weapons in the Marine Corps school at Quantico, Va. He recently completed eight weeks training at the special weapons school in Norfolk, Va.

Chamber of Commerce Holds Annual Meeting Wednesday

The annual meeting of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce will be held Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at Oak Hall hotel. Election of new directors, reports, plans and discussion of the community's future will be features of the meeting.

E. C. Marshall, Duke Power Co. President, Died Monday

Edward Carrington Marshall, 76, president of Duke Power Co., and a trustee of the Duke Endowment, passed away Monday afternoon at his home 500 Hermitage Road, Charlotte, after an illness of several months.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at St. Peters Episcopal Church, Charlotte, with burial at Elmwood cemetery.

Among those attending the funeral from Tryon will be Dr. W. S. Rankin, a fellow trustee of the Duke Endowment and K. A. Bowen, manager of the Tryon district of the Duke Power Co.

Mr. Marshall was a pioneer in the development of the Duke Power Co. having been with its interests since 1907, and president since 1949. Dr. Rankin said the growth of the power company is a lasting monument to the ability and achievements of Mr. Marshall who devoted his life to the success of the company and its philanthropic interests. All the branch managers of the company are honorary pallbearers along with a number of distinguished civic leaders throughout the state. Manager Bowen of Tryon has often spoken with affection of Mr. Marshall's kindly interest in the welfare

-----Continued on Back Page-----