TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 23, 1953

Weather Tuesday: high 77, low 61, Rel. Hum. 47 . . . President Eisenhower says the health of the nation depends upon world trade. Ways must be found to promote world trade. The same is true of areas and communities. No person, community or nation can live alone and prosper. In this county many people have things they no longer need which if sold would put money in their pocket, for other things they do need, give the customer something they want and promote general prosperity. Advertising in the Bulletin brings buyers and sellers together for their mutual benefit. Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey says income tax to be cut . . . Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oscar Hearon of Spartanburg and Saluda, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Monday at their home, Greenfields, near Spartanburg. The reception was given in their honor by their children, Fanning, Elizabeth, Charles and Belle. The daughters are now Mrs. Lindsay Little and Mrs. Tucker McCravy. Mrs. Hearon is the former Miss Relle McLaughlin of Eufaula, Ala., a member of a distinguished Southern family that was prominent in the development of the business, civic and cultural interests of that section. Mr. Hearon, a native of Bristol, Va. (May 31,
