

[Est. 1871-28]

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

[5c Per Copy]

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 173

TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 30, 1953

Weather Tuesday: high 88, low, 60, Rel. Hum. 52 . . . Ernst Reuter, 64, noted mayor of West Berlin and symbol of German resistance to Russia, died of a heart attack Tuesday . . . Herbert Hoover, 79, undertaking the job of reorganizing federal agencies in Washington . . . Charley E. Johns becomes governor of Florida, succeeding Dan McCarty, who died Monday . . . Governor Warren of California expected to be named Chief Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court . . . Senator Joe McCarthy and Jean Kerr, married Tuesday in Washington . . . St. Louis Browns of the American League will move to Baltimore . . . The World Series opens today at Yankee Stadium between the Brooklyn Dodgers and N. Y. Yankees. The team that wins four games will be world champions. Television view of the game starts at 12:45 . . . Two outstanding events in the community during the weekend were the Men's Garden Club meeting at Oak Hall and the Woodmen of the World meeting at Landrum High school gymnasium. At the Garden Club meeting Wildlife Resources Commission Director Clyde Patton outlined the advantages of a wildlife refuge for Polk and Henderson counties. Wildlife is one of world's basic renewal resources, he said.

Continued on Back Page

Leo Milhaupt, New President Tryon Chamber of Commerce

At the first meeting of the new board of directors of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce Tuesday, Leo Milhaupt, manager of the Pierce-Wilson Motor Co. was elected president to succeed G. D. Cooksey.

Mr. Milhaupt has served on the board for several years and has been chairman of various committees. He is a former Rotarian and has served as county chairman of programs for the automotive industry.

W. L. Hague, executive secretary of the Tryon Federal Savings & Loan Assn., was elected vice president. Mr. Hague is chairman of the Tryon School Board, secretary of the Kiwanis club and leader in various civic affairs including the drive for funds for bleachers at Harmon Field.

J. Lee Lavender of the law firm of McCown, Lavender and McFarland, was elected secretary-treasurer. He has been a director for several year and chairman of committees and has taken an active part in general civic-affairs.

Mrs. Sibyl Brendall was re-elected assistant secretary.

The officers and the following members make up the board of directors: G. D. Cooksey, Dr. George S. Vosburgh Jr., George Webster, Ralph Farthing, Holland Brady Jr., and R. B. Scruggs.

The annual dinner meeting will be held Monday night, Oct. 26th at Oak Hall. G. D. Cooksey was named chairman of the committee.

Regular meetings of the board will be held the second Tuesday night at 8 o'clock at Oak Hall.