HOSPITAL NEWS

New patients at St. Luke's Hospital include Mrs. E. D. Edwards, Lionel Cochran, Forest City; Miss Vertell Williams, Mill Spring; Charles West, Tryon.

Patients discharged include Charles Honeman, Tryon and Wade Plumbley, Landrum.

Two Firemen Honored

The Landrum Fire Department gave a steak supper Tuesday night at the Landrum Firemen's hall in honor of two of their members who are moving out of the town.

F. M. Hart, Landrum agriculture teacher, has accepted a position with the Epworth Orphanage at Columbia, and F. M. Littlefield has moved to his new home in the country.

Both firemen were presented farewell gifts by the firemen and expressions of appreciation of their service to the community.

Fire Chief P. C. Lancaster is requesting the support of all citizens in making a success of Fire Prevention Week next week, by making a thorough check-up of their premises and aiding the firemen with inspections.

Moss New Superintendent Methodist Sunday School

Walter D. Moss Jr., will be the new superintendent of the Tryon Methodist Sunday School when Promotion and Rally Day is held next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Moss, who has been active in church work since moving to Tryon and prior to that at Mt. Airy, succeeds Dr. C. W. McCall, who has held the office for the past 11 years.

Promotion of various students to higher classes and a general rally of the spiritual forces of the church school will be held and all members of the church and friends are invited, says Dr. McCall.

Mrs. Everett D. Mitchell has returned to Asheville after a visit in Tryon with Mrs. F. W. Sprague on Pine Crest Lane.
