Miss Elizabeth 9oct54
James,

Weather Friday: high 77, low 62, Rel. Hum. 83; Saturday, high 80, low 62, Rel. Hum. 44; Sunday, high 80, low 48, Rel. Hum. 62 . . . The big interest of the moment is the outcome of the World Series between the Yankees and Dodgers. The Yankees have won three games and the Dodgers two. First team that wins four games wins the championship. If the Yankees win today the series closes. If the Dodgers win another game will be played Tuesday. On that hinges the Kiwanis program. If the Dodgers win today, part of the Kiwanis program will be taken up seeing the game on television at Oak Hall. If the Yankees win, Program Chairman Albert Simpson will have a variety program ready . . . Eastern Star meets tonight at the Masonic Hall . . . Former Governor Earl Warren of California has arrived in Washington where he was sworn in as the new chief justice of the U. S. Supreme Court . . . Governor Umstead of North Carolina is pleased with the bond vote over the state Saturday. Unofficial vote so far gives about 190,000 votes for the school and mental institution bonds and about 30,000 votes against them. In Tryon township 463 people voted, 455 of them for the school bonds and 5 against; 450 for the mental institutions and 6 against. The county vote was not available at press time.

Mrs. Lula Carpenter

Landrum—Mrs. Lula Clement Carpenter, 84, widow of Jacob Carpenter, died at her home here at 12:30 a. m. Sunday after a long illness.

Mrs. Carpenter had resided in Landrum 67 years and was one of the first residents of the town.

She was the daughter of William J. and Mildred Clement of New Prospect. She was one of the oldest members of Landrum Methodist Church.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Maude C. Query of Charleston, Mrs. A. Yates Arledge of Raleigh, N. C., Mrs. Archie R. Blackman of Landrum and Miss Mayme Carpenter of St. Petersburg, Fla.; three sons, Dr. Walter W. of Hendersonville, N. C., Judge Joe E. of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Harold D. of Dunellon, Fla.; a brother, J. R. Clement of Asheville; eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted Monday at 3 p. m. at Landrum Methodist Church by the Revs. Arthur M. Jones and J. B. Connelly. Burial will be in Landrum Cemetery.

The following nephews will be pallbearers: Broadus, Vernon, Thaddeus and William Clement, Lyles, Frank and Julian Carpenter, and Roy Heavner.

The body will be at Petty Funeral Home until the hour of the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. Milner Water have as guests, Mr. Waters' daughter, Mrs. Martin Stougard and Mr. Stougard of Staten Island, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Cathey, who managed the Moses H. Cone Memorial Park Craft Center at Blowing Rock this summer, have returned to Tryon.
