James, Miss Elizabeth 9oct4

Congratulations to Landrum on getting approval of a new $375,000 grammar school. Temporary plans call for a 20-class room building with a gymnasium. A 30 acre site for the new school has already been secured. Landrum high school students now belong to District One consolidated with other communities. All citizens desiring the best for their children are consolidating high schools. To call them by districts is one way to overcome a psychological barrier. One community is then recognized as much as another . . . Little Bobby Greenlease, 6-years-old, who was kidnaped and ransomed for $600,000 was found dead Wednesday. Most of the money has been recovered and two of the three kidnapers have been arrested . . . Will Littlejohn, 60, of Spartanburg, was gored to death by a bull Wednesday night in a cow stall at the Littlejohn place . . . The St. Luke's Hospital Colored Auxiliary is seeking funds to equip a reception room at the new annex to the hospital, in memory of William Hannon. The Auxiliary is putting on a bake sale Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at Foodland to help raise money to pay for the furnishings. This is an opportunity for all persons who like good food and would also honor an outstand-

Fashion Show Plans

Plans for the PTA Fashion Show go forward by leaps and bounds. Ballenger's, the sponsor for this event, is a veritable beehive of activity in anticipation of the big night, Wednesday, October 14th, at 8 p. m. at the school auditorium. And PTA members are busy cooperating in every way to make this a successful project.

Chairman Matt O'Shields announces the following committees: Tickets, Mrs. Charles Cox, Mrs. Louise Hilton, Miss Lula Burrell; Models, Mrs. W. Y. Wilkins Jr., Mrs. E. E. Caston, Mrs. Woodrow Hague; Program, Mrs. Nelson Jackson II, Mrs. Wofford Foster, Mrs. Clarence Rhodes; Advertising, Mrs. Manuel Holthouser; Poster, Spencer Reed; Stage Setting, Leonard Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Theo Kerhulas; Sale of Refreshments, John Brown, Mrs. J. W. Taylor, John Cowan, Perry Coggins.

At the school children are participating in poster competition. First and second prizes will be given for two groups: grades 5-8 inclusive, and grades 9-12 inclusive.

Landrum Girl Killed By Truck Wednesday

Miss Carolyn Blanche Kimbrell, 16, Landrum High School junior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kimbrell, was struck by a truck driven by Eddie Lewis Hardin, 15, Wednesday afternoon about 3 o'clock at Main and Mallory streets, in Landrum. She was taken to St. Luke's Hospital in Tryon and was pronounced dead on arrival.

Reports state that Miss Kimbrell and five girl friends had
