

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest

DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 182

TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1953

Elizabeth 9oct154 James, Miss

Weather Monday: High 85, low 45, Rel. Hum. 52 . . . The death of Miss Carolyn Blanche Kimbrell, 16, by a pick-up truck driven by Eddie Hardin last Wednesday, was declared an unavoidable accident by a coroner's jury Monday night at Landrum . . . Dyphtheria increasing in Spartanburg County between Landrum and Inman areas. Spartanburg Kiwanis Club is financing a vaccination program . . . Carl Austin Hall has confessed to the killing of Bobby Greenlease, the child he and his woman companion kidnaped. There was no third party . . . Mayor Thomas A. Burke of Cleveland, Ohio, has been named by Governor Frank J. Lausche to fill the senate seat made vacant by death of Senator Robert A. Taft . . . Spartanburg Herald reports marriage of William Earl Sheehan of Tryon to Betty Jo Searcy of Lake Lure; and also James Edward Williams and Ethel Mathis, both of Landrum, were married . . . Mrs. Charles T. Gilchrist of Winter Park, Fla., has just arrived for a visit with Mrs. Missildine instead of leaving as reported Monday . . . Most of Tryon is getting set for the P.-T. A. Fashion Show Wednesday night at the school auditorium. A lot of fun is promised for young and old and the money derived will help

Continued on Back Page

Building Tourist Business

The public is invited to attend the meeting of the State Advertising Committee in Asheville on Monday, Oct. 19, at 3 p. m. in the Grove Room of the Battery Park Hotel.

Plans for the enlarged advertising, publicity and tourist service programs of the Department of Conservation and Development will be presented. Your suggestions will be welcomed.

Please advise associates interested in the State Advertising program who may not have received this notice of the time and place of this meeting. All are welcome to the Advertising Committee session and other meetings of the Department of Conservation and Development October 19-20 in Asheville.

MRS. SAM HOLBERT

Funeral services for Mrs. Beatrice Holbert, 50, wife of Sam Holbert, will be held Thursday afternoon, Oct. 15, at 2:30 o'clock in the Pleasant Grove Methodist Church, Campobello, S. C.

Mrs. Holbert died Sunday morning about 3 o'clock of a heart attack. Besides her husband she is survived by her mother, Mrs. Stella Hoyle, of Asheville; three sisters, one brother, and three step-children.

Pilgrim's Funeral Home of Hendersonville is in charge of arrangements. Pallbearers and flower bearers will meet at 1:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Wilson (Gelolo Iris Kell) of Grand Rapids, Mich., are spending their vacation in Tryon with Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Kell on Berry Street.