TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, OCT. 21, 1953

James, Miss Elizabeth 9oct54

Weather Tuesday: High 85, low 48, Rel. Hum. 55 . . . The weather is nice but still too dry for lawns and newly planted things.

. . . Joe Laughter, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Laughter and Fred Revis, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Revis, both of Saluda, were injured Tuesday noon at Saluda intersection of Highway 176 with Henderson Street. Their bicycle collided with an auto driven by Joe B. Melton of Inman. Revis was treated for minor injuries at St. Luke's Hospital, but Laughter is still in a serious condition at the hospital, and is unconscious part of the time . . . Today's Spartanburg Herald has a picture and feature article on Landrum's new $140,000 filter plant which was put into operation Tuesday for the Landrum water system. The pumping facilities are located near Lake Lanier on property donated by the J. E. Morgan Estate. A number of Tryon citizens are consumers of the Landrum system which officials state is as good as the larger cities use except on a smaller scale. Landrum Council hopes the new plant will take care of the growth of the town for a number of years. Five new fire hydrants have been installed and a number of larger pipes put in to increase

FOOTBALL

The Tryon Tigers went through a long session on fundamentals and topped it off with a scrimmage Tuesday as they prepared for District Three (Cowpens-Pacolet) at Cowpens Friday night.

Fred Ashley and Lynnwood Thompson missed the rough work because of injuries suffered in the Hendersonville game. Both should be ready to go Friday. Allan Pruette and Furman Walker showed up well defensively, while Kite Biedler, Raleigh Parker, and Jim Ballew racked up long gains on offense.—School Reporter.

Barnette Gives Report To Kiwanis Club

At the Kiwanis club meeting Tuesday at Oak Hall Hotel, P. L. Barnette gave a report of the recent Kiwanis Convention of the Carolinas District that was held in Columbia, S. C. Delegate Barnette reviewed some of the speeches and gave some of the highlights of the various events. He reported that it was a very successful convention.

A special feature of the program was a quartet composed of Manuel Holthouser, Harold Warrington, Howard Greene and Fred Swann, who sang "Daisy". The quartet was directed by Dr. Geo. S. Vosburgh Jr.

Guests of the club were St. Claire Knight, Spartanburg; Marion McCune, Miami, Fla.; Rupert Koch, Hendersonville; John Wardlaw, Union, S. C.

As of June, this year, there were 4,888,460 United States farms with electric service, leaving 493,675 without this service.
