

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Best DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No.

TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1953

James, Miss Elizabeth 9oct54

Weather Monday, high 74, low 58, Rel. Hum. 48 . . . Secretary Benson of the Agriculture Department is trying to satisfy the cattlemen in the west, and asks them to submit a plan for improving the situation . . . Russians as bad as ever with demands and lies about the Korean situation . . . Big plans underway for Halloween Carnival at Harmon Field Saturday, starting at 2 p. m. and lasting 'till late at night. Something for all the family . . . The annual dinner meeting of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce was held Monday night at Oak Hall hotel, featured by a variety entertainment by Hugh Culbreth of Inman and a talk by the Rev. Orville H. White. President Leo Milhaupt, presided. The Rev. H. A. Pruyn gave the invocation and Mrs. E. E. Missild'ne was the accompanist for the assembly singing. Retiring President G. D. Cooksey gave a brief report of some of the achievements of the chamber of commerce last year which included the printing of 20,000 new folders answering hundreds of letters and calls for information, assisting Landrum in getting a new industry and extension of its water shed: work with Columbus and Green Creek in getting new industries for those sections in the future: attempt was made to get

---Continued on Back Page---

Preparing For Last Game

Monday the Tryon High Tigers went through a light workout in preparation for their final home game of the season against Christ School on Saturday at 7:30 p. m. Ronnie Ross, Dan Edwards and Jim Ballew missed the workout because of injuries, but should be ready for Christ School. Ed Howard has been shifted to right half to replace Arthur Ridley. Robert Bowyer will probably take over the right guard spot.—School Reporter.

Republican Meeting Tonight

There will be a Republican meeting tonight at the home of Mrs. Ruth Woodley to discuss consolidation of high schools. The discussion will be led by Supt. Brank Proffitt. The meeting is open to all interested in this subject. Meeting time is 8.

Pairings Listed For Vets Handicap Tournament

The first round matches of the Veterans Handicap Tournament will be played sometime this week. The pairings are as follows:

J. G. Newhall vs. Dr. W. F. Bryan; Walter M. Howell vs. Julian Calhoun; Charles Hare vs. Dr. Alexander V. Dye; Enoch Prather vs. A. I. Bahler; Stan Buckingham vs. Rev. R. C. Falconer; John F. Norton vs. Dr. Charles Sewall; Lucius Sayre vs. Maj. A. R. Herron; W. M. Brent vs. Nelson Jackson.

The nematode population of tobacco fields can be reduced one-fourth by turning the roots of this year's plants out to dry in the sun.