

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 94 TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, OCT. 29, 1953

Weather Wednesday: High 88, low 47, rain .23, Rel. Hum. 61 . . . President Eisenhower sees no need for special session of the Congress to aid farm situation . . . Bishop Homer Tomlinson of the Church of God was arrested Wednesday for damaging the concrete Ten Commandments erected on a mountain near Murphy, N. C. He claimed the commandments were being worshipped as an idol. Another faction of the church headed by his brother, the Rev. Milton Tomlinson, use the place as a shrine . . . Folks in this area are looking forward to two big days this week: Friday and Saturday. Arthur Smith and his Cracker-Jacks will be at the Tryon school auditorium Friday night at 8, along with some local talent. The place is bound to be full of people. Whether it will hold them or not is a question bothering some officials . . . The Rotary Club and the Duplicate Bridge Club also meet Friday. Saturday afternoon and night will be full with programs at Harmon Field beginning at 2 o'clock. The football game starts at 7.30. Something will be going on all the time. Young and old can choose their time or make a holiday of it and spend the entire time there.
