

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

James, Miss Elizabeth
Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 96 TRYON, N. C. MONDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1953

PROMOTED TO GASTONIA

K. A. Bowen

Thomas F. Hill, vice president of the Duke Power Company and supervisor of the company's branches, has announced the transfer of K. A. Bowen, manager of the Tryon branch to the manager-ship of the Gastonia branch.

Mr. Bowen succeeds Zeb M. Harry, who takes the place of J. D. Henry at Salisbury. Mr. Henry was transferred to Greenville, S. C., to succeed W. B. Ellis Jr., who has resigned as manager but will remain with the company as a consultant.

A successor to Mr. Bowen at Tryon has not been announced. In the meantime the Tryon office will be directed by Manager J. D. Sloan of the Hendersonville district of which Tryon territory is a part.

Mr. Bowen was appointed manager of the Tryon branch in 1952

Continued on Page Two

CURB REPORTER

Weather Friday: High 72, low 46, Rel. Hum. 41; Saturday high 75, low 37, Rel. Hum. 48; Sunday high 80, low 45, Rel. Hum. 40. Rainfall for month of October .55, (little over half an inch). . . World news about the same. . . Congratulations to Oak Hall Hotel on passing its Fifth Anniversary, Sunday, Nov. 1, under the management and ownership of G. D. Cooksey and Miss Clara Edwards. Their continuous improvements from week to week receive the applause of all citizens desiring better things for the community.

. . . . President Leo Milhaupt of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce reports a full house and an interesting program at Arthur Smith's Cracker-Jack Talent Hunt Friday at Tryon school. The Pruitt Sisters of Spartanburg won the TV award and will appear Thursday at 4:30 over TV; Dick Durham won the popularity contest and Dr. George S. Vosburgh Jr., who sang two solos, was invited to appear on the TV program in Charlotte. . . . Again the wonderful spirit that dominates the county was demonstrated Saturday afternoon and evening at Harmon Field when the Tryon P.-T.-A. sponsored a carnival with entertainment that appealed to all, so evident from the large numbers of enthusiastic participants. It took a great many energetic hard working volunteers to put it on and it took many participants to make it such a success. There were ponies to ride, airplane trips, tours by motor for the tiny ones, games of skill and chance, and many other features that everyone found enjoyable. The refreshments were varied and well patronized.