N. C. TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1953

Weather Monday: High 80, low 42, Rel. Hum. 37. Now, let's get our breath a minute and check on some of the week's activities. World news is about the same. In Tryon TODAY, Kiwanis meets at 1 p. m. at Oak Hall. This afternoon and night many events are scheduled to compete with the Lions Club sponsored Circus. It is CIRCUS DAY and hundreds of folk, young and old will be at the junction of Skyuka Road with Highway 108, to see the tents go up early this afternoon. There'll be plenty to see starting at 2 o'clock. Night show at 8 . . . The American Legion also holds its regular meeting tonight at 8 and the Tryon Presbyterian Church will present a Japanese service tonight at 7:30. The Pentecostal Holiness Church has a revival underway tonight and every night this week. The Tryon Methodist WSCS meets tonight at 8 with Mrs. Eda Wall. Then there are the moving pictures at Tryon, Lake Lanier and Landrum. What a day! But that isn't all. St. Agnes Guild meets today at 3:30 at the Parish House. Congregational Youth Choir holds its rehearsal at 2:45. The Town of Landrum is holding a municipal election, and the Motor Vehicles Department began a hearing this morning at 10 regarding
