

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 101

TRYON, N. C. MONDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1953

Weather Friday: High 54, low 38, Rel. Hum. 43; Saturday high 57, low 30, Rel. Hum. 38; Sunday high 58, low 34, Rel. Hum. 41. . . . Little change in world news. Another fire struck the General Motors Willow Run plant but it was brought under control in about an hour. . . . Dr. Leon E. Smith, president of Elon College, will be the guest speaker tonight at 7 at the Congregational Men's supper. Dr. William T. Scott, superintendent of the Southern Convention of Congregational Christian Churches, will be the guest speaker at the Kiwanis Club Tuesday at 1 p. m. Elbert H. Arledge in charge of program. . . . The Tryon Country Club Women's Bridge Tournament will be held Tuesday at 1:30 at the Club House. Mrs. Gaden Corpening and Mrs. Paul Culberson are hostesses. All women members and their guests are invited. . . . There has been very little rain in over a month. All growing things need water. Thanks to the foresight of Tryon Town officials this community has not suffered during this dry spell as far as city water is concerned. . . . Asheville Citizen reports that Jackson Walker of Mill Spring has been initiated into Lamba Chi Alpha fraternity at the University of North Carolina.

Miss Adelaide Dunning

Miss Adelaide Dunning, 81, passed away Sunday night at 10 o'clock at St. Luke's Hospital.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 4 p. m. at the Church of the Holy Cross with the Rev. Charles L. McGavern officiating. Burial will be in Tryon Cemetery.

Pallbearers; Lucius E. Sayre, Dr. J. A. W. Woody, M. C. Holt-houser, the Rev. Charles G. Sewall, John G. Landrum Jr., C. D. Stevens.

Miss Dunning had made her home in Tryon for the past 45 to 50 years, having come to Tryon from Plainfield, N. J., with the Edmund Embury sisters.

For about 20 years she made her home at the hospital where she was in charge of the linen room until she suffered a stroke about two years ago.

Her kindness and thoughtfulness of others were characteristics that made her loved by many friends.

Man Killed Here Saturday

Warren P. Carson, 30, was killed about 1:30 Saturday morning at his home on Wilderness road near Tryon. Sheriff Loyd B. Panther reports that Carson had six bullet holes in his body made with a .32 Savage automatic. A brother-in-law, Pete James Maybred, 18, was bound over to the Superior Court by a coroner's jury for further investigation. It was reported that the two men were in an argument. Carson's widow, Esther Carson, was put under a $500 bond as a material witness.

Practically all of the United States' production of snuff is consumed in this country.