NEW DUKE MANAGER

T. M. Patrick Jr.

Charlotte, N. C.—T. M. Patrick Jr., who has been associated with Duke Power Company's Chester, S. C., branch for 17 years, has been transferred to the Tryon, N. C., branch as manager.

The announcement was made today by Thomas F. Hill, Duke vice president and supervisor of branches. Mr. Patrick succeeds K. A. Bowen, who was transferred to Gastonia, N. C., as manager Nov. 1. Mr. Patrick's transfer is effective today.

A native of Chester where his parents live, Mr. Patrick joined the Duke Power Co. in 1936. He is a veteran of World War II, having served 42 months in the Air Force.

Weather Friday: High 65, low 30, Rel. Hum. 45; Saturday high 71, low 30, Rel. Hum. 37; Sunday high 81, low 31, Rel. Hum. 27 . . . This is KNOW YOUR BANK WEEK in North Carolina. Mayor W. B. Umstead has issued a public letter calling attention of all citizens to the vital service banks render communities. Mayor C. D. Stevens of Tryon has issued a proclamation on its observance. The banks and their personnel are making a special effort this week to humanize their service and are trying to acquaint the public with the nature of banking operations. The Tryon Bank & Trust Co., serving a wide area from Hendersonville to Landrum and from Hogback Mountain to the Rutherford County line, is an institution to be proud of. It is modern in every way; adequate to meet community needs and its personnel is friendly, helpful, courteous and has a sincere desire to serve the public. The Tryon bank has been running a series of advertisements in the Bulletin inviting the public to visit the bank this week and get acquainted . . . Sunday's Charlotte Observer had a feature story on the achievements of the Johnson C. Smith University and showed a picture of President Hardy Liston Continued on Back Page
