

(Est. 1898)

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

(5c Per Copy)

ENTERED SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 7 TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, NOV. 17TH, 1953

CURB REPORTER

Weather Max: High 79, low
47, Rel. Hum.

Open House Wednesday

All this week is "Know Your Bank Week" and people are invited to visit the Tryon Bank & Trust Co., anytime to see it, but on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock the entire personnel will stop work and play host to all their friends and all the visitors in the community who wish to come to see the bank and to meet the personnel, and to partake of refreshments. It will be a period of social fellowship, an opportunity to meet friends and to see one of the most important institutions in the country.

W. C. Ward, vice president and treasurer of the Southern Mercantile Co., and prominent civic and business leader for many years, is president of the bank; John G. Landrum Jr., who was brought up in banking is the executive vice president of the Tryon bank; James R. Gibson is cashier. Other members of the personnel include Miss Alva Jackson, Mrs. E. E. Miller, Troy Morris, Mrs. Dutton Beatson, Mrs. Calvin Pace, Miss Max Dedmond, Miss Bernice Wilson, Miss Evelyn Burrell. The directors include the officers and R. O. Andrews, J. T. Arledge, R. H. Brady, R. E. Brantley—men with a variety of successful business experience.

The bank's growth has been phenomenal, but modest executive John Landrum, who is proud of the record of the bank, attributes the growth to the remarkable people of this section.

The resources of the bank now

Continued on Back Page

Ada V. (Dedmond) Brown

Mrs. Ada V. Brown, 68, died Sunday morning at a hospital at Newberry, S. C., following a stroke four months ago.

Mrs. Brown was a native of Rutherford County, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dedmond of Columbus.

Funeral services will be held today (Tuesday) afternoon at 3:30, with interment at Rosemont cemetery in Newberry.

Mrs. Brown's husband died at Camp Lee, Va., during World War I. Prior to that she lived in Columbus. After her husband's death she moved to Newberry.

She is survived by the following children: Mrs. Nellie Sessions, Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. F. D. Bodie, Joanna, S. C.; Mrs. James Green, Kinards, S. C.; David O. Brown and Selwyn Brown of Newberry.

Two sisters, Mrs. W. A. Ormond of Columbus; Mrs. J. L. Furr of Clinton, S. C.; two brothers, George C. Dedmond of Tryon and E. Von Dedmond of Newberry, S. C.

LIKED PONDER LETTER

Miss Mae Irene Flentve of LaGrange, Ill., former Polk County Welfare Executive, read with interest the letter written to the Home Friendly Club by Ray Ponder of Mill Spring who is in Korea.

She writes, "I sent the copy of the Bulletin which contained the letter from the Mill Spring man about clothing for Koreans, to the American Relief for Korea. I happened to be writing to them and thought that statement from a soldier on the spot might be good advertisement for them . . . I guess you folks will miss the Bowens a lot."