Thursday At 8 P. M.

The program for the November meeting of the P.-T. A. on Thursday evening will be a movie called "The Sixth Chair". This is described as "a dramatic portrayal of the dangers of public complacency toward education." It stresses the need for building construction and modernization, more teachers, and plenty of up-to-date educational tools. It is released by the Visual Education Department of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.
