

(Est. 1871-28)

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS
AT TRYON, N. C.

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

(5c Per Copy)

MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily

Newspaper

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 109

THURSDAY, NOV. 19TH, 1953

Elizabeth James, Miss

Weather Wednesday: High 76,
low 32, Rel. Hum. 42.

FIRE NEWS

The building of all fires of any nature outside the home within the Tryon Town Limits is prohibited during this dry period by order of Mayor C. D. Stevens.

The town officials and Fire Department are asking the cooperation of all citizens during this emergency.

Firemen and hundreds of volunteers in the three counties of Polk, Spartanburg and Greenville counties, have been fighting day and night the forest fires in the Hogback and Rocky Spur areas.

Firemen returning from Rocky Spur area this morning stated that spread of the fire had been stopped in that area. Hundreds of acres have been burning for two days. Three separate fires have claimed the attention of fighters. One broke out Wednesday afternoon between Kilburn Mill and Dr. John Royall's at the beginning of the Hunting Country.

Spartanburg Red Cross sent soup, coffee, and other food to

Continued on Back Page

BOOK WEEK VISITORS

We have had the most delightful group of "young visitors" at the Lanier Library to see the special displays of new books for Book Week. On Wednesday, Mrs. Bowen and Mrs. West took their kindergarten to the Book Shelf, then came to the library for a special program, which included the reading of "The Duck" by Mrs. West and playing a new library record, "Folk Songs from Other Lands."

At noon the second grades of Mrs. William Spivey and Mrs. Eunice Watson walked from the school and gave us a most enjoyable program. Betty Reynolds, from the upper grades, read Thanksgiving stories and poems and we were shown drawing of Pilgrims and Indians and a large water color painted by the second grade boys and girls. Then came a surprise—stories and poems written about Book Week by the second graders! They were splendid, and two selections follow. On Friday weather permitting, the fifth grade of Mrs. R. B. Scruggs will visit the library.

For many things we give thanks.
For family, friends, books and banks.

Our books are very good,
And help us to do the things we should.

Whenever I have a story book,
I wish to go to a reading nook.
Many friends in my book I'll find,
And to my book I be so kind.

—Library Reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. Duford Lawrence and children of Monroe, N. C., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Littlefield.