

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 110 TRYON, N. C. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1953

Weather Thursday: High 75, low 38, Rel. Hum. 43 . . . Henry Picard, noted golfer of Charleston, S. C., is a guest of Ray Ferguson Sr., of Cleveland, O., at Buckingham Inn. Prof. Frank Bryan defeated Rev. R. C. Falconer 3 and 2 in the finals of the Senior Golf Tournament at the Tryon Country Club Thursday afternoon. Remember Bake Sale Saturday 9 a. m., at Ballenger's. Don't burn any trash this weekend until after a good rain.

TRYON ROCKETS WIN

Donald Fox made three touchdowns Thursday night to lead the Tryon Rockets in a 25 to 21 win over Florence Chapel High of Wellford in the final game of the season for the Edmund Embury school.

The local team consisted of Savannah Johnson and W. C. Johnson, ends; R. Fox and R. Hannon, tackles; L. Suber and H. Hannon, guards; Markev Fox, center; Rozella Booker, Johnny Miller, Donald Fox, James Bryant, backs; Charles Suber, O'Dell Suber and Ratcliffe, subs.

It was homecoming at Edmund Embury school. During the afternoon a colorful parade was held on Trade Street, with floats, high school band, majorettes and other

Continued on Back Page

Herbert Oliver Of Atlanta Riding & Hunt Club Head

Herbert D. Oliver of Atlanta, Ga., and Tryon, was elected president of the Tryon Riding & Hunt Club Thursday at the annual dinner meeting held at Sunnydale. He succeeds Willis Kuhn of Indianapolis, Ind., and Tryon.

James G. Ferguson, Chicago publisher, was elected vice president. The secretary and treasurer will be named by the board of directors. Herbert S. Thatcher has held the post for the past 11 years and received a vote of thanks from the approximately 90 members present.

New directors named include Mrs. Willis Kuhn for one year, George C. Vance for two years, Col. Edward Blair and John A. Stephenson for three years. Hold-over directors include George Webster, Joe Hanna, Herbert D. Oliver and J. G. Ferguson. Honorary directors for life: Charles J. Lynch, Carter P. Brown and Samuel A. Bingham.

Retiring president Bill Kuhn thanked the members and committees for their cooperation in making the past year the most successful in history of the organization. Mr. Ferguson reported a peak membership of around 150; and Secretary Thatcher gave a consolidated report of the achievements of the organization without incurring any debts, and a surplus put aside for a rainy day.

Mr. Oliver, the new president, has missed only one Tryon Horse Show in 25 years. He was president of the Atlanta Horse Show for a long time, is a director of the National Association, and a prominent judge of horse shows, hunter trials and other riding

Continued on Back Page