Weather Friday: High 68, low 39, rain .01, Rel. Hum. 82; Saturday high 69, low 58, rain 2.02, Rel. Hum. 82; Sunday high 67, low 54, rain .41. Rel. Hum. 92. Tryon Bank & Trust Co. has an ad in today's Bulletin thanking the people for their cooperation in their "Open House" program celebrating "Know Your Bank Week" a few days ago. Visitors to the bank were given a royal welcome by different members of the personnel. Guests were greeted at the door with that warm, friendly enthusiasm given all depositors. They were shown the various operations of the bank, served tea and cookies on the ground floor and given souvenirs consisting of plastic piggy banks, book matches, a change purse and a good luck key ring containing a penny, so that no guest would leave the bank completely broke . . . . A number of friends sent the bank flowers for the open house event and others sent messages of best wishes. The community and all patrons have every reason to be proud of the bank and its services . . . The Episcopal Men's Club will have their dinner meeting Tuesday night at 6:30 at the Parish House. George Dusenbury is president. . . . Tickets for the Bird Club lecture Saturday night may be obtained in Missildine's Pharmacy . . . .

"Voice Of Democracy" Winners Are Announced

Tryon High School held its Voice of Democracy finals on Thursday, Nov. 19, in the presence of three out-of-school judges. The following pupils participated: Louise Knight, Betty Denton, Albert Henson, James Burns, Gail Johnson, Joyce Farthing, Melvin Higgs, Ann Covington, Jimmy Hill and Arminta Barber.

With praise for all the young people participating, the judges rendered the following decisions: First honor, Jimmy Hill ($5); second, Melvin Higgs ($3); third, Ann Covington (honorable mention).

This nation-wide contest is being sponsored in Polk County by the Polk County Memorial Post of the American Legion.

The results of the Voice of Democracy contest in the Mill Spring High School are as follows: Gladford Ruff, first place ($5); Elizabeth Jack, second place ($3); Patsy Morris, third place (honorable mention).

Gladford Ruff represented Mill Spring High in the county finals.

Jimmy Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hill of Columbus, is a member of the senior class of Tryon High School. Gladford Ruff Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Gladford Ruff Sr., is a member of the junior class of Mill Spring High School.

BEAUTIFUL ROSES

Missildine's had a vase of roses on display Monday. They were grown by Mr. and Mrs. Minto L. Henderson at their home in Gillette Woods. Some of the roses measured six inches across and included Miss America, Texas Centennial and Brandywine.
