

Operating Freezer Locker

Mr. and Mrs. Berk O. Skeen of Saluda are operating the Farmers Federation Freezer Locker in Tryon. They cut up meat according to directions of customers and package it in 300 individual lockers or storage meat in bulk in the larger freezer storage rooms.

Mr. Skeen is a native of Akron, O., and Mrs. Skeen of Houston, Tex. They were in Miami, Fla., for about 9 years before coming to Western North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Kimberly and daughter, Mrs. Carlton Smith, and small son, Kim Smith, of Neenah, Wis., have arrived at the Kimberly Tryon home, Eskdale Farm in the Hunting Country. Ensign John R. (Bob) Kimberly Jr., U. S. Coast Guard, San Pedro, Calif., is also visiting his parents at Eskdale, and has as a guest, Miss Lucy Bell, of Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Joe Wall is a patient in Moore General Hospital, Swannanoa.

HOSPITAL NEWS

New patients at St. Luke's Hospital include Mrs. Clayton Cox, Tryon; Mrs. Roxie Roach, Tryon R-1; Paul Edwards, Landrum; Miss Carolyn Pace, Saluda.

Twin sons were born Nov. 21 to Mr. and Mrs. James Huntsinger, but one of them died.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Miller are parents of a son born Nov. 21, at 9 a. m.

Patients discharged include Mrs. Melvin Phillips, Mrs. Dennis Dunn and baby daughter; Mrs. Ashby Wickham, Mrs. Claude Davis, Floyd Henson.

Second Lieut. Phil Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan H. Morris, has been promoted to first lieutenant at his air base in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blackwell are parents of a son born Saturday at Norman, Okla., Naval Base, where Mr. Blackwell is chief radio-man in the Navy. The Blackwells now have four children, Carole, Barbara, Lynn and the new son.

O A T S

(Our Aim, To Satisfy)

PAINT COMPANY

Paint Contracting — Interior or Exterior

Glass Installed or Replaced

Floors Sanded and Finished

Estimates Gladly Given

H. O. STOUDENMIRE Owner

Telephone 193-X after 3 P. M., or Write:

BOX 961, TRYON, N. C.