

PRUYN GIVES THANKS

The Rev. H. A. Pruyn had charge of the Kiwanis program Tuesday at Oak Hall hotel. The Rev. Mr. Pruyn said some of the things that he was thankful for were humor, home and happiness. After his talk the speaker answered questions on the Middle East, where he spent several years.

Dr. George S. Vosburgh Jr. led the club in singing several songs appropriate for Thanksgiving. Guests of the club were Kiwanian Rupert Koch, Hendersonville; Mrs. Elbert Arledge and T. M. Patrick Jr.

Virginia Horseman Here

J. Arthur Reynolds Stables has announced the addition of Cecil Tuke of Hot Springs, Va., who will be in charge of the stable at Pine Crest.

Mr. Reynolds who is in charge of the stable in the Hunting Country states that Mr. Tuke was born in the Virginia section of fine horses and that he is experienced as a riding master, having done much work for hotels and resort centers and knows how to care for riders coming to the inns and hotels.

HOSPITAL NEWS

New patients at St. Luke's Hospital include Wallace Wood of Tryon. Patients discharged include Lynch Whitesides of Mill Spring; Harry Smith of Garden City, Long Island; Mrs. Virgo Belue and baby son of Landrum.

C. C. Feagan, John W. Cowan of Tryon, were among approximately 300 farmers from this section who visited the Purnia Research Farm at Gray Summit, Mo., last week and spent the following day touring the company's mills and research laboratories in St. Louis.

For Thanksgiving Week Parties serve Benne Balls appetizers. The Hearthside. —Adv't.

Hounds Open Season Thurs.

The Tryon Hounds will hold their first meet Thanksgiving Day at 3:15 p. m. at the Chapman Farm entrance. All members have been requested to wear their colors. It will be a drag hunt.

Ernst Mahler and Arthur Farwell are joint masters and Mrs. Wm. E. Munk is secretary.

Mill Spring WMU Studies Life of Korean People

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Mill Spring Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Lee Thompson. The program was "Advance Through Suffering In Korea".

The Rev. A. C. Martin gave the opening prayer; Mrs. Joe Walker used as the devotional Hebrews 11:33-40; 1 Cor. 3:13-15; Mrs. Robert Jolley discussed Korea in the early years; Mrs. Carl Thorne discussed Korea of today; Mrs. Pauline Bell gave a story "Esukan Become Esther."

Guests were Vernon Steppe and Frank Foy. Two of our boys who were in service in Korea. They gave a very interesting discussion on the Korean people and their experience with them.

Mrs. Thompson served refreshments to members and visitors.

RICKY McENTIRE

Continued from Page One
all of the home; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry McEntire of Landrum R-1; and the maternal grandfather, Earle Fain of Campobello

Something new at The Hearthside. Original Hummel Figures — collector's items. —Adv't.

A. G. McMURRAY SURVEYOR

Boundary and Topographic Surveys; House Layouts. Office in Onger Building, Columbus, N. C. Telephone 2448.