

Cross-Compliance Will Not Be Required In 1954

The special "cross-compliance" requirement for basic crops has now been withdrawn for 1953 production.

The U. S. Dept. of Agriculture reported that a previously announced requirement that producers must be in compliance with all basic agricultural commodity acreage allotments established for their farms, in order to be eligible for price support on any one basic commodity, would not be put into effect for crops produced in 1954.

The Department announced October 8 that a wheat producer would have to be in compliance with all basic crop acreage allotments established on his farm to be eligible for price support on the 1954 crop. This same provision was announced on Oct. 22 for five other basic commodities—cotton, corn, tobacco, peanuts and rice.
