Probable starters for Tryon girls: Hazel Edwards, Ann Moon, Margaret Blackwell, Myrna Constance, Kay Dedmond and Lila Hancock. Boys: Bill Hines, Kite Biedler, Ronnie Ross, Raleigh Parker, and Jim Ballew or John Bradshaw.

Dr. Vosburgh On TV Tonight

Dr. George S. Vosburgh Jr., will be a guest singer on Arthur Smith's Cracker Jacks program tonight (Tuesday) over WBTV Charlotte which begins at 9:30.

Dr. Vosburgh was invited to sing in Charlotte following the talent hunt program held in Tryon last month.

Dr. Vosburgh's sister, Carol Richards, sings on TV from Hollywood every Monday night on NBC with the Dennie Day program, but it is not carried by Charlotte. She was seen locally Monday, Nov. 30, on the nationwide muscular dystrophy program. Her voice is in two popular movies substituting for actresses unable to sing. She is the voice of Vera Ellen in "Call Me Madam" and also the voice of the actress singing The Resurrection in the movie "The Robe."

Tryon Valley Chapter 411 meets Thursday night at 7:30 at Masonic Hall.
