Russia seen as opposed to President Eisenhower's plan for international cooperation to control atomic power, according to radio broadcasts from Russia. Jim Baker Jr., has a radio with shortwave power strong enough to bring in Russia and other countries of the world. The other night a man speaking in English with a definite American accent, was praising Russia and telling about how bad conditions were in America American people can't be very bad when from their own hearts they help so many needy people all over the world and when they volunteer their donations to pay for lighting Christmas trees on Trade Street just to send out beams of good cheer to all who wish to look. Weren't the lights cheerful all day Wednesday during the rainy and cloudy atmosphere when a light of any kind would help warm the heart? This the poorest as well as the richest can enjoy, if he has a sense of appreciation and a desire Season's worst snowstorm hits upper midwest says headlines in Asheville Citizen. The continuous rain did not interfere with approximately 400 people who were served a turkey dinner at the Congregational

"Book of Happiness" Solves Gift Problems

As perennial as Dickens' "Christmas Carol" is the annual problem, "What to give?" The Tryon Theatre has come to the rescue of that unfortunate giver who never seems to know just what to give who, says Manager Jacoby.

"The delightful solution to this problem is 'Books of Happiness'. These attractive books are available in several denominations and they contain tickets good for entertainment for weeks to come. Almost any friend or member of the family can truthfully say, "That's just what I wanted!" says Mr. Jacoby, who is advertising the books in the Bulletin.
