TRYON, N. C. MONDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1953

Weather Friday: 48, low 27, Rel. Hum. 53; Saturday high 54, low 40, rain 1.38, Rel. Hum. 92; Sunday high 53, low 46, rain .02 Rel. Hum. 84 . . . Prediction for Monday night and Tuesday, colder and fair . . . Tryon Second Grades will present a Christmas program Wednesday at 10:18 a. m., at the school . . . Ernst Mahler gave an interesting talk on Australia at the Tryon Rotary Club Friday. He pictured it as an undeveloped land of opportunity for a young man willing to work. There is plenty of space in a country nearly as large as the United States and has less than 9 million people. The climate is excellent the year round and every known mineral has been found there including uranium, gold, coal, iron, lime, etc. Everything needed has been found except oil, and experts are working on that. Wages and salaries geared to cost of living. General Motors, Ford, Kellogg, Kraft, International Cellucotton are among American firms with large plants there now. Others soon. Australia is looking to America for leadership and cooperation rather than England. Australia is determined to be self-supporting and imports are prohibited—even American magazines and newspapers. Much of their taxes is raised by lotter-
