

Unique Foods Add Spark To Holiday Festivities

Begin thinking now in terms of what you can serve when friends and relatives drop in from time to time during the holiday season.

Russian tea is always a good cold weather beverage, but for variety, why not try this hot spiced grape juice, a recipe taken from the files of Ruth Current, State home demonstration agent:

Juice of 1 lemon; 1 quart of grape juice (canned or frozen); 2 cups boiling water; $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of sugar; 2 nutmegs (cracked); $1\frac{1}{2}$ sticks cinnamon; 4 pieces orange rind.

Cut the orange rind in small pieces (free from white inner skin). Heat all ingredients together and simmer for 10 minutes. Strain and serve hot.

Serve with the hot grape juice cheese straws or several kinds of your favorite cookies.

For a festive holiday touch, float a lemon slice in each cup and top with a red cherry and a small leaf of holly. This deep red punch is unique in its flavor and will keep conversation flowing smoothly as the guests try to name its ingredients.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cairns who returned last week from Florida plan to spend the holidays at their home in Tryon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh B. Norton and children, Ann and Ricky, are moving today to Waynesville, N. C., where Mr. Norton has opened a photo studio.
