

SHOPS OPEN TONIGHT

Adv. in the Bulletin announces shops will be open tonight in Tryon until 9. Coffee will be served to visitors at Betty Sturgis Shop, Valhalla Handweavers, Tack Shop, Book Shelf, Hearthside, Blue Ridge Weavers and Red Bird Associates.

Ballenger's open tonight also for those who wish to register for a free coat. No coffee.

Carl Hinrichs, student at State College, Raleigh, will spend the holidays in Tryon.

Mrs. Sam Vance leaves Friday for Columbia, S. C., where she will spend the Christmas holidays with relatives.

Bill Baker and Carroll Brady, students at the University of North Carolina are expected home Thursday night for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Maxwell and son, Sandy of Hartsville, S. C., will spend the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Anderson.

HOSPITAL NEWS

No new patients this week. Patients discharged include Mrs. Mark Burrell and Ross Klatter.

For Your Parties

We have a
Large Fostoria
Bowl and Cups for Rent

May we have your reservations now?

Blue Ridge Weavers and Gift Shop

HUNDREDS OF ITEMS FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Toys, Novelties, Shirts, Gloves, Ties, Pajamas, Towels, Sheets, Pillow Cases, Jackets, Dress Material, Irons, Presto Cookers, Bed Spreads, Hose, Bed Room Slippers, Slips, Sweaters, Wagons, Tricycles, Skates, Skooters, Guns, Christmas Tree Decorations, Dolls and Carriages and many other useful articles.

SMITH'S SUPER MARKET

Telephone No. 2182
COLUMBUS, NORTH CAROLINA