

Officers Elected Tuesday For Congregational Men

The Christian Laymen's League of the Congregational Church of Christ elected the following officers Tuesday night: Holland Brady Jr., president; Edward H. Sayre, vice president; H. F. Wuehrmann, secretary; Emil Hinrichs, treasurer.

Supt. Brank Proffitt of the Tryon Schools was chief speaker and told of the importance of the public school as the heart of our democratic system of government. Only through an educated citizenry can we maintain a democratic form of government, because the public offers equal opportunities to all children regardless of economic status.

Landrum Garden Club

The Garden Club had a Christmas party at their regular meeting in the Fellowship Hall of the Methodist Church on Thursday.

Mrs. John Brown, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Elizabeth Gramling Turner of Spartanburg who gave a talk on wrapping Christmas packages.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. DeFoix Suttle, Mrs. C. M. Littlefield, Mrs. Paul Edwards, Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. A. B. Turner, Mrs. Eston Jackson, Mrs. A. B. Waldrop, and Miss Margie Daniel. Gifts were exchanged.

The Dixie Bright tobaccos tend to get a yellowish tinge in the field before they are ready for priming.
